

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends All
Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sure relief, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

AT THE COLONIAL.

Feature films, four in number and a pleasing vaudeville full of musical numbers and comedy songs constitute the program at the Colonial. The programs are selected with care and the productions of the best motion picture studios of the country are shown with daily change of program.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Everybody in black face, plantation songs and dances, tenor ballads and Joe Miller jokes are features of the big minstrel show at the Majestic which the musical comedy company is presenting. The entire company takes part and most of them perform individual specialties. W. H. Hall is the stately interloper with Eddie Wright and George Teats on the ends. Lora Lorraine sings new ballads and the Misses Miller and De Yoe do novelty dancing. A lively olio entertains and a laughable afterpiece completes the bill.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The new booking arrangement at the Orpheum begins today when a change of bill will be made instead of Sunday. Prominent on the bill is Porter J. White and company in a dramatic sketch, "The Visitor." A fantastic dancing act, employing seven persons, is called "The Pipes O' Pan." Park, Rome and Francis furnish comedy in songs; the Ramsey sisters are musical artists and Wolf and Varella perform odd antics. A new comic Keystone film will be shown. On Tuesday evening the election returns will be read from the stage.

SURPRISE THEATER.

Today's pictures at the Surprise theater will include a Princess drama, "The One Who Cared," wherein an old country doctor sets his daughter right. Two men in love with the doctor's daughter and he tests their courage by offering them pills, one of which is supposed to be poison.

Reliance story. A subject in which Jack Conway plays the young inventor. The girl's rascally uncle tries to steal the plans of his invention, but is electrocuted by a device arranged by his pal at the last.

Tomorrow evening The Animated Weekly, with the latest war news and other late current events and a beautiful two reel Eclair feature, "The Violinist."

BILLIE BURKE.

Miss Billie Burke will be the attraction at the Oliver theater this evening. Her play this time is "Jerry," a comedy written expressly for her by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, in which the popular actress impersonates a lively young girl from Chicago, who finds herself in the unconventional environment of a staid Philadelphia suburb. It is the most "Billie Burkesque" part Charles Frohman has yet found for his charming star and she has already made hits in it in New York, Chicago and several other cities. She wears a lot of pretty, fluffy, girlish things that everybody likes to see her in, and in one scene she appears in a pair of pink pajamas. "Jerry" will be preceded by a one scene curtain raiser, entitled "The Philosopher in the Apple Orchard" by Antony Hope, and arranged especially for Miss Burke.

GRAND OPERA.

On Thursday, Nov. 5, the New York Grand Opera Co. has completed arrangements to produce in our city at the Oliver opera house the opera of "Faust." These artists who will be heard here are Miss Yvonne Daire, formerly with the Royal opera house in St. Petersburg, and the Opera Comique in Paris; Miss Marguerite Holbert, late of the Boston Grand Opera company; Chev. Salvatore Giordano, the tenor-robusto, upon whom Enrico Caruso has designated his mantle to fall; Gustave Mevl, who created the part of "Rodolpho" in Boeie Abbott's production of "La Boheme;" Richard Parks, late of the Savage English Opera company; Ruth Rusby and Ethel M. Peters, well known on the concert stage; Giorgio Galata, Francis S. Parks, Miss Jessie Bruce, Charles Frier, Henri Tusenbrook and others as well known. War this year has played havoc with members of the chorus, and the chorus numbers will be sung by the entire cast of great principals.

Scenically the opera will be unusually equipped—a presentation more artistic than any heretofore attempted on a wide tour.

LASALLE THEATER.

Robert Leonard will be featured in a two reel Rex drama at the Lasalle today. The story is called "Olaf Erickson, Boss." A hardened, ill tempered bully gets a sound slap in the face from the hand of a pretty girl, and at once light floods into the brute's soul and he realizes the uselessness of his past. The various incidents which show the breaking down of the big fellow's will and the final transformation, are highly absorbing. "The Girl was the first real girl that Olaf had encountered up in that wooded lonesome section, but even at that, it is possible that if she had succumbed to his bullying ways, he would have passed her by as one not worth the second thought.

"A Dog's Love," is a beautiful one reel Thanhouser, featuring little Helen Bridgely. Baby Helen is one of those poor little rich girls without companions of her age, for she is not permitted to play with free-lance children in the streets. "Across the Court," is a Joker comedy. "The Million Dollar Mystery," the latest episode, No. 19, will also be a feature for the day.

Tomorrow will bring a Paramount feature, "Patchwork Girl of Oz," with Violet MacMillan in the leading role, the feature is in five reels and is said to have some of the best comedy in pictures.

MYSTERY PICTURES.

"The Million Dollar Mystery" is drawing to a close and there will be only four more series after today to be shown at the Auditorium where it has been running for many weeks. "Si's Wonderful Mineral Springs," a Kalem comedy with Ruth Roland; "Greater Love Hath No Man," a beautiful Edison drama, featuring Mabelle Trunnell; "Meeting Mr. Jones" and "Our Home Made Army," two Biograph comedies, and "Seth's Sweetheart," Edison comedy with Viola Dana, will also be on today's bill.

Tomorrow's bill is exceptionally strong and includes "The Iron Master," a two reel Biograph drama; "Midst Woodland Shadows," a Vitagraph drama featuring Anita Stewart and Earl Williams; Selig weekly of current news; "The Guiding Fate," Biograph drama, and "Through Eyes of Love," an Essanay drama telling how a wealthy girl fled to the country to escape leading a society life. Beverly Bayne and Richard Travers are featured in the cast.

Bessie Morris, a daughter of the rich, has grown tired of the lazy life which she is forced to live and longs to get out into the world and do some good. Her father, who believes in letting her think and decide for herself, suggests that she pay a visit to his old nurse, Widow Hobbs. She is delighted with the suggestion and leaves for the village the following day. Here she meets Samuel Jenkins, a rural lawyer, who pays her great attention. Their friendship finally grows into love and she promises to marry him as soon as he is able to support her. Shortly after she goes back to the city, not revealing to him her wealth and social standing. Six months later finds Samuel in the city and through the help of Mr. Morris he has secured a good start in business, and much to the disgust of Mrs. Morris, they plan for the wedding.

During the evening Tuesday election returns will be given as they come in.

AMERICAN CLUB ENDORSES MEMBERS

At the meeting of the American club, held Sunday afternoon in the club rooms, 423 S. Chapin, the candidacy of four of the members of the club who are running for offices in the coming election, were endorsed. Although the club is not political in its purpose, the members voted to support Joe Vordy, George Raab, Joe Wypiszyński and B. E. Klysz, and to aid in their election Tuesday.

Speeches advocating various measures for the betterment of the club were given by George Raab, Joseph Werwinski, and S. B. Dixer. B. E. Klysz and S. B. Dixer. At the business meeting following, it was decided that after the membership has reached 100, the initiation fee shall be raised to $5. A smoker and social session concluded the afternoon.

CHICAGO BAND IS HEARD

The Salvation Army Silver Band of Chicago gave four sacred concerts in South Bend Sunday. They played at the Grace Methodist Episcopal church at the morning service, followed by a concert on the streets. In the afternoon they appeared at the high school auditorium and in the evening furnished the musical part of the service at the First Presbyterian church.

Thirty musicians comprise the band which is one of the most artistic musical organizations that has appeared here in some time. They pleased large audiences at each of the four concerts.

Did you pay your taxes today? If you did, vote the Independent County ticket tomorrow. There's a reason. Adv.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End
Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.
